

ABSTRACT OF DISCLOSURE

A contoured laminated slate incorporates a slate veneer backed by a cured resin. The resin is poured onto a slate sheet within a form and partially cured. A slate veneer is cleaved from the slate sheet and the slate veneer with resin attached is 5 pressed on a shaped mold and the resin is fully cured. The resulting product provides a lightweight slate laminate having the curved contour of the mold.